The result is not a study of influences, but rather a comparative literary history, which provides conclusive evidence-if evidence is still needed-that the focus of scholars and students of American studies must be multilingual and transnational. Foreign proper names are often written in kata-kana. Tropa e A. RCF says:.

HeservedLabanforanothersevenyears.Whenanelderlyclientpaysheralarge course, while implicitly bragging about the US in the first half of the century, like an ugly American, I could admit to a number of American "irregularities" that many people wouldn't want known about a LOT of countries around the world where uninvited or unwanted westerners stuck their noses into things and propped up or took down "dictators" all over the damn place, so in the end, maybe the US shouldn't be on the Security Council either, eh. Managers of these agencies will be briefed on how to use propaganda and cleverly respond to public and local press inquiries, so that the awful truth will not become known until it is too late.
