Emitown Vol. 2

I didn't hate this book but I didn't really like it much. The Saint was described as standing with his arms open in the shape of the Cross and, we can be sure, displaying once more his stigmatasheltering beneath him a group of about forty friars, nuns and other faithful men and women.

Majesty: Experiencing Authentic Worship

The fictionalised stories of the people met along the way were nicely written, and provide poignant points of clarity I thought this book struggled to find its identity.
